Scrapbook – Nada Fuqua – no report

Media/PR: Jim Wille gave a report on upcoming events that he will have published in the newspaper. He brought up what he was doing to update the business cards and rack cards. There was discussion about the motion that was made and passed last meeting about omitting the Gallery open hours and days. Jim made a motion to reprint the cards as is and leave the days and hours open on the side of the card that advertises the Gallery. Linda Hussong seconded the motion. There was discussion about including the Facebook logo on the card also. The motion passed. The cards will be reprinted at a cost of $36.75 per 1,000 with hours and days on the Gallery side of the card along with the Facebook logo. Jim will update the rack cards and bring them to the next board meeting for approval before printing.
