

HOPKINSVILLE ART GUILD MINUTES

NOVEMBER 8, 2016

The Hopkinsville Art Guild members met on November 8, 2016, at 1:00 P.M. CST. Those in attendance were Jim Wille, Lynn Shephard, Nancy Stalls, Jeff and Tanya Ezell, Jeannie White, Leoma Howery, Susan Rochelle, Carolyn Self and Henrietta Kemp, presiding.

Minutes from October 11 were corrected to change the date of Dicken's Alley from December 20 to December 10. Minutes were then approved by a motion from Jim Wille and seconded by Nancy Stalls; it passed.

Corresponding Sec'y, Susan Rochelle, indicated that she has sent thank you's to Newcomers and to donors for the Juried Art Show. She also presented a letter requesting money for the Christian County High School JROTC. Carolyn Self moved; Jim 2nd and motion passed to give $25.00. Treasurer Atwood will send a check.

Treasurer's report: Beverly Atwood, treasurer, was out of town; report prepared by the treasurer was presented by Jim Wille and approved by his motion, seconded by Susan Rochelle; it passed

Committee Reports:

Membership report was emailed by Betty Liles in her absence, reporting 93 members.

Historian, Nada Fuqua, was absent but group was reminded to keep scrapbook items.

Media/PR Chair, Jim Wille, noted that he has sent the usual monthly event notices.

He is exploring PR options, an in-house projector and other equipment.

Henrietta requested special PR advertising for Dicken's Alley on 12/10/16.

Report was given about the Pennyrile Juried Art Show by Nancy Stalls, chair.

Workshops announced by Henrietta Kemp: (most to be held at Challenge House 7 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

November 12- Photography by Angela Comperry to be held at L & N Depot;

February 25 – Acrylic Painting techniques by Linda Pierce;

March 25 – Pastels with Jeannie White;

April ?? – Watercolors with Leah Foote.

Brown Bag Luncheons reported by C. Self:

November 9 – The Art of Travel by Mac Lacy and Carolyn Cobb

December 14 – Light Christmas Luncheon & music

Guild Community Exhibitions:

Chamber of Commerce – Betty Liles contact person;
Jennie Stuart Health – Charlotte Nelms, contact person;
L & N Depot – change every 2 months – Nancy Stalls, contact;
Hopkinsville Golf & Country Club are exhibit – Susan Rochelle, contact.

Old Business:

Discussion prevailed around sales of open back wooden frames donated by Emily Humphries to the Guild bringing in approximately $300. There was previously $100 earned from sales of watercolor supplies donated by Maggie Selvidge. Susan Rochelle moved that Guild use this money for student related projects and award scholarship memberships to 5 Christian County High art students. Jim Wille 2nd the motion; it passed.

The Big Read Steampunk jewelry was reportedly a big success. Twenty-five persons were present with 17 being youth.

Henrietta has been in conversation with Penny Fletcher, who works for the Kentucky Innovation Network, about offering an "Arts Entrepreneurship workshop". A representative may provide a one day workshop on Saturday, January 28, 2017, costing $10 per person.

NEW BUSINESS:

Henrietta announced that Guild/Gallery presented a welcome gift purchased at Superlawn to the 6th St. Boutique for their grand opening.

NEXT MEETING: December 13 at 1:00 p.m. at the Gallery.

Respectfully summarized,

Carolyn Self, secretary