

HOPKINSVILLE ART GUILD MINUTES

May 9, 2017

Hopkinsville Art Guild met at 2 P.M. on May 9, with Beverly Atwood, Elaine Seeley, Jeannie White, Jim Wille, Susan Rochelle, Carolyn Self and Henrietta Kemp who presided.

MINUTES from April 3 were reviewed, corrected & accepted.

FINANCE REPORT showed an April balance of $11,457.29. A Budget meeting was announced for June 13 at 1 p.m.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Membership for the Guild is now 111.

Historian – no report

Media/PR – Jim indicated he had released his usual notices timely.

Webmaster – no report

Workshops – May 13 workshop is being cancelled for lack of response.
Henrietta plans to survey members about workshop topics for next year.
She has several popular ones already scheduled.

Brown Bag Luncheons scheduled are as follow:

May 10 – Alissa Keller re: Museum

June 13 – Martha White re: Flowers

July 12 – Julia Anna Carysle re: Milkweed

Community Exhibits:

Chamber of Commerce – need new contact person in July

Jennie Stuart Health – Charlotte Nelms, contact person

L & N Depot – Nancy Stalls, contact person

Hopkinsville Golf & Country Club exhibit – Susan Rochelle

Old Business:

1. Henrietta reported that coloring book will go to printer in next day or two & showed examples of the pages & cover.
2. Military spouses luncheon was poorly attended and it will be assessed for changes next year.
3. Exhibitors at Janice Mason Art Museum in Cadiz are reminded that art can be removed June 3 between 12 N & 4 P.M. by apt. only.
4. HS Art Contest awards reception is May 16, 5 to 6:30 P.M. Refreshments are needed, mostly cookies/brownies.

5. Leadership Hopkinsville requested a grant for Boys and Girls Club Art room. It was the consensus to send $200 for the project.

NEW BUSINESS:

1. Exhibition USO event at Oak Grove is Tues., June 13 from 10:00 to 2:00
2. The Nominating Committee is working to present at quarterly meeting
3. Jeffers Bend has requested donations for Silent Auction at their fund-raising dinner for the Bend.
4. Book Marks to be given during Solar Eclipse were discusses. There will be a work session for this June 13 after budget session.
5. Annual Fundraising letter being prepared; membership letter mailed.

NEXT MEETING: June 13 for budget & book mark making; June 26 for quarterly meeting. Food: Bar-B-Q purchase along w/Jeannie, baked beans; Carolyn, potato salad; Elaine, green salad; Susan, buns; & Henrietta, drinks.

Respectfully summarized:

Carolyn Self, Secretary