About the Hopkinsville Art Guild/Art Gallery

In 1965 a group of local artists formed the Hopkinsville Art Guild. It is a non-profit organization designed to promote art and cultural growth in our community. The Guild offers both professional and amateur artists the opportunity to express themselves through a variety of media. Guild membership is open to all persons, regardless of race, religion, sex, or national origin upon payment of annual dues.

Our Mission

The Guild has as its mission to promote the visual arts and the expansion of arts education.

Membership Opportunities

Art Guild members are encouraged to display their art work in the community at the Chamber of Commerce, L&N Depot Gallery, and Jennie Stuart Medical Center. They are also provided networking opportunities. Members assist with producing juried art exhibits, supporting arts education, and providing scholarships for children and adults to take art classes. Member volunteers are active in supporting the Guild Gallery, fundraising, education, outreach and more.

Guild Sponsored Workshops

A variety of workshops are offered by instructors from local universities and professional artists. Subjects covered include photography, painting, and drawing. Two workshops per year are free to members. Additional workshops are $25 (Students—$15).

Hopkinsville Art Guild Gallery

Hopkinsville Art Gallery members may exhibit and sell their work in the gallery located at 108 E. 6th St., Hopkinsville, KY. A 25% commission is taken on sales. Exhibitors must volunteer one day per month in the Gallery and donate 1 large and 1 small piece of their art work for fundraisers. Gallery members are also included as Guild members.

Juried Art Shows

Each year the Hopkinsville Art Guild sponsors the Pennyroyal Juried Art Exhibition which is open to all artists from Kentucky and surrounding states and offers cash awards as well as non-commissioned sales.
