

Hopkinsville Art Guild
Executive Committee Meeting
July 10, 2014
Bradford Square Mall

President Carolyn Self called the meeting to order at 1:00 p.m.

Committee Members Present: Janice Cayce, Tanya Ezell, Carolyn Self, Jan Farley, Dave Russell

Minutes: The minutes of the June 12th meeting were handed out by Secretary, Tanya Ezell, and accepted as submitted?

Treasury Report: Treasurer Janice Cayce handed out the financial report before the meeting started. The Bank balance on June 30 was $8,458.61 and the balance on the sales tax account was $1,048.67. The finance report was approved as submitted.

Committee Reports:

Membership: No report

Gallery Committee: No report from Terry Fuqua and Jim Mason, facility managers. Dave Russell, Volunteer Coordinator has prepared the quarterly schedule with the help of Lynn Shepherd. The process went fairly smoothly.

Much discussion was conducted about moving the Gallery to a new location on 6th Street. Mac Arthur is remodeling a facility which may be utilized for $1,000.00 per month counting utilities.

Publicity Committee: No report

Planned Events:

1. Holly Boggess, Hopkinsville Downtown Renaissance Coordinator, has arranged for there to be tables and chairs at the Farmers Market for the Saturday, July 12th painting exhibition from 9:00 -12:00. Jim Mason, Jack Bastin, Betty Liles, Henrietta Kemp, Linda Pierce, Nancy Stalls, Tanya Ezell, Jeff Ezell, and Carolyn Self plan to participate. Liles and Kemp will provide two tents. Self will bring the chalk and carpet pads for children's chalk art.
2. Holly Boggess would like to offer a Fall Art Festival at the Farmers Market around the end of August.
3. From October 2 through November 17, the Arts Council will host the Big Read in Hopkinsville. The Guild will host a Children's art Activity October 18 based on a book called "The Malted Falcon".
4. Pennyroyal Juried Art Exhibition, October, 2014. Nancy Stalls, Guy Bozard and Jan Farley have agreed serve on the committee. Henrietta Kemp will publish the catalog of the show. Betty Liles will print the wall cards. Guild members are asked to provide refreshments for the reception and awards ceremony.
5. Carolyn Self presented an opportunity to sponsor art activities for Special Olympics. She will attend meetings that will gain more information.

Planned Workshops:

- Mixed Media workshop provided ( but not at Guild expense) - Need 10 people to pay $20.00 each, Leslie Campbell, leader in September.

- Betty Vinson and Henrietta Kemp are planning on doing a mixed-media workshop for two educational sororities in March, 2015.
- Suggestion was made that members who work extra hours at the gallery can earn free workshops. Another suggestion was to require members to work one shift to get their free workshop.

We had planned to discuss the Guild's bylaws this meeting, but time did not permit. That will be discussed at a later date.

Minutes compiled from Taped conversations and Carolyn Self's notes.

Respectfully submitted,

Henrietta Kemp, Guild Secretary