Old Business:

International Festival - September 25, Bruce Convention Center
 Women’s Show – Bruce Convention Center wants art exhibit Oct. 1 and 2 if members are interested they should contact Nancy Stalls.

New Business:

Linda Pierce asked about allowing adults in the Tri County Special Services program exhibit their work at the Gallery. The section of hanging space with pegboard by the dressing room will be designated as a special hanging area. Nancy and Judy will work with her on the project. Lynn Shepherd will investigate installing lighting in the area. The Gallery will invite schools to exhibit on a monthly basis throughout the year starting January, 2011, in this special area.

In order to honor former member Verna Heltzel, it was decided to present her with an honorary membership at the Fall show awards reception.

It was decided to donate the Derby Arts Festival Banners to the city and the Hopkinsville High and Christian County High Art Departments to create Christmas Banners for Founders Square. The Pillars of Art will be donated to the Parks and Recreation Department for use at the Little River Days with both High schools painting them with appropriate themed designs.

The next regular meeting will be Thurs. Oct. 14 at 12:00 at the Guild Gallery.

Respectfully submitted, Henrietta Kemp Secretary
